Obtaining the criteria

D (Bus) Licence Learner Permit and CPC Bus Case Study

Step 1: You will need to complete the Category D Bus Driver Theory Test. This can be done through theorytest.ie.

Step 2: CPC Case Study test. This test consists of 3 case studies relating to the vehicle category in which you wish to obtain a driver CPC. This can be done through theorytest.ie (Please note, the CPC bus case study is only valid for a period of 2 years from its date of issue).

Both theory test can be completed at the same time and these tests can be completed at any National Driver Licence Service (NDLS) centre.

Step 3: Attend your local NDLS centre and apply for your physical D licence learner permit by submitting your pass sheet following completion of the D licence theory test. An appointment will have to be booked in advance using this link: Apply for my Cat D learner

As soon as you have obtained the necessary criteria contact the Human Resources Department forward a copy of the above documentation to busdriverrecruitment@dublinbus.ie. A Human Resources representative will be in touch with you shortly in relation to a start date.
